

Credit Hour Equivalencies - Graduate Clinical/Practicum, Field Experiences, and Internships

The credit hour equivalency requirements for graduate clinical/practicum, field experiences, and internships differ by program and School. Students should check the respective academic sections of the graduate catalog for the specific requirements for their program.

Pharmacy:

Field Experience Credit Hour Equivalencies

Pharm.D. students will complete field experiences as part of their program. Students earn:

- 3,000 minutes per credit hour for IPPE (assuming 50 hours per semester)
- 2,400 minutes per credit hour for APPE (assuming 160 hours per rotation)

Nursing:

Clinical/Practicum Credit Hour Equivalencies

Students complete direct care clinical/practicum hours as part of all M.S.N. focus areas.

- Students earn 1 credit hour per 100 direct care clinical /practicum hours.

The School of Allied Health (PA and MAT programs):

Immersive Clinical Experience Credit Hour Equivalencies

PA and MAT students will complete immersive clinical experiences as part of their programs.

- Students earn 1 credit hour per 2,400 minutes of immersive clinical experience

Biblical and Theological Studies:

Internship Credit Hour Equivalencies

(On pause)