Affidavit of Financial Ability:

The U.S. Government requires that all individuals seeking a F-1 visa must prove that they and/or their sponsors have the financial means to pay for tuition, fees, and estimated living expenses not otherwise covered by scholarships for the first year of attendance. This affidavit and all required documentation must be submitted to the International Student Services Office at Cedarville University for issuance of the student's I-20. Any delay in the submission of the required documentation may result in the inability of the student to enroll for the desired academic year.

Any questions about this document should be directed to the International Student Services Office by e-mail to iss@cedarville.edu.

Instructions:

- All individuals who are committing to provide payment toward the above named student's financial obligations must complete, sign, and submit page 2 of this Affidavit of Financial Ability.
- The total of all commitments from all sponsors combined must equal or exceed the remainder of the student's financial need as calculated below.
- All financial commitments should be stated in US Dollars.
- All individuals listed on this affidavit must provide official/certified bank documents that demonstrate they possess access to currency that equals or exceeds their commitment on this affidavit.
- All bank/financial statements must be dated within 6 months of the desired date of enrollment.
- All bank/financial statements must be official/certified statements, translated into English, and must state the form of currency represented on the statement and the total numerical balance in the account.
- Bank/financial statements must also demonstrate that the individual/sponsor is the owner of the account, and that the funds may be used toward payment of the outstanding tuition, fees, and estimated learning expenses.
- All documents provided to Cedarville University may also be requested by the U.S. Consulate office during the student's interview to obtain their F-1 visa.
- Misrepresentation of any information will result in denial of issuance of the Form I-20 or the student's F-1 visa.
- RETURN BOTH PAGES OF THIS AFFIDAVIT TO: Cedarville University International Student Services Office, 251 N. Main St., Cedarville, OH , 45314 or email documents to ISS@Cedarville.edu
